THE WASHINGTON BEE.

VOL. XIV. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 4, 1896. No. 41.

WHITLAW REED.

WHITLAW REED.

The Editor of the New York Tribune, the mouthpiece of the republican party, is Whitlaw Reed.

He was Vice-Presidential candidate on the ticket with Ex-President Benjamin Harrison.

Mr. Reed is, no doubt, one of the best informed editors in this country and a man of influence and forethought.

The New York Tribune, is the leading republican journal in America to-day.

They Say

Our contemporary has another candidate.

Some people should attend to their own business and let other peoples' alone.

The Capital City Club is a new advent in the social world.

Reed is in the lead and the figures will show it.

The combine will never be defeated.

Major Grovenor counts 18 in Mississippi, but they are weighed in the balance and are found wanting.

Whiskey tax is too high now.

Why should the whiskey men be taxed higher than any other class of citizens?

The BEE takes the lead and don't you forget it.

Steadily our subscription list is increasing.

Be honest when you deal with honest people.

Don't be uneasy, as Reed is in the lead.

Let the District Delegation ask for six delegates when they go to Chicago.

The Quay Club of Philadelphia, and the Blaine Invincibles of this city will go to Chicago in a special car over the B. & O. R. R.

Lookout for the great Republican Souvenir Edition of The BEE.

Don't fail to read next weeks issue of The BEE.

Do you want all the news?

If you do, read The BEE, the fearless defender of the rights of Afro-Americans.

A demand for the restoration of suffrage is the watch-word.

Lawyer F. L. Siddons is the coming man.

Taylor has just 334 more days to serve as Recorder of Deeds.

Then will come the tug of war.

What a scramble there will be and how many there will be disappointed.

For sale cheap, at the office of the American.

Presidential indorsements.

Editor Cooper will try his hand on democratic indorsements next.

The Colored Attorney was the theme of Lawyer Payton's paper last Sabbath.

Let us be in harmony with the party.

Negro understrappers are numerous nowadays.

Negro apologists are getting numerous.

Live in hope although you may die in despair.

The Reed boom has taken a jump.

Good men are often despised because you don't know them.

Never despise a man because others do.

We often dislike a man because other people do.

Why should colored men complain of those who aid them.

The Tuskegee School is a money making institution.

If you don't believe it count the income.

It is not well to be deceived with glittering generalities.

Send in your special notices to The BEE.

Let us have your Church notices.

Town Talk is greatly in need of something to say.

The BEE is persuing the even tenor of its ways.

If Town Talk would give itself a rest on society business it would be appreciated by decent people.

The BEE is the leading paper in the country.

The BEE must be read by everybody in Washington.

Send in your news to The BEE.

There are always two sides to every question.

A NEW YORK DAILY FREE.

The Greatest Offer Ever Made in the History of American Journalism.

ACT WITHOUT DELAY

Or You May Lose the Golden Opportunity of a Lifetime.

For the purpose of rapidly increasing the circulation of the New York Daily and Sunday Mercury, established fifty-eight years ago, the Mercury Printing Company (capital stock, $500,000.00), incorporated under the laws of New York, makes the greatest offer ever made in the history of American journalism by an institution of the standing and magnitude of the New York Mercury.

For a limited time only, shares of stock in this corporation of the par value of ten dollars will be sold at face value—$10. Each share of stock carries with it a free copy of the Daily and Sunday Mercury.

We will send one copy of the Daily and Sunday Mercury free to every shareholder as long as the stock is held by him or his assigns. For example, if a subscriber purchases ten shares of stock he will be entitled to ten copies of the Daily and Sunday Mercury free to his own or any other address as long as he continues to be a stockholder of the corporation. These copies of the paper may be disposed of by subscribers to the capital stock in any way desired by them.

This proposition is open to all—newsdealers included.

If you care to invest only ten dollars in one share you can by merely holding the same receive the Daily and Sunday New York Mercury as long as you live, and can bequeath the privilege to your heirs.

There will be only a limited amount of this stock disposed of in this way. Those who are lucky enough to obtain these shares will find that in a very short time they will be worth 300 per cent. premium.

Italy has opened negotiations with the Abyssinian King.

Speaker Reed declined to have his name submitted to voters of Allegheny County, Pa., along with those of Quay and McKinley.

A south-bound theatre express and a train moving north crashed together on the Sixth avenue "L" in New York and four men were badly hurt.

Miss Emily Martin, said to be the treasurer of the Chicago Legion, King's Daughters, was found, stupefied with liquor, on a sidewalk in Hoboken, N. J.

It is reported that negotiations between Great Britain and Venezuela for settlement of the Yuruan incident in Venezuela have about been completed.

Edward P. Donigan was shot and killed on East Fourteenth street, New York, by Saloon-Keeper John Shandley. Shandley claims Donigan insulted him.

William Scharg and Archie Rogers, stonemasons, were thrown seventy feet from the scaffolding of a church in course of erection at Fayette, O., and killed.

THE PRINCIPLE OF ARBITRATION.

Lord Salisbury Desirous of Determination on Some Plan.

London, March 23.—Lord Salisbury has written a letter to Sir James Stansfeld, who was chairman of the recent demonstration in Queens Hall in favor of the principle of arbitration in all disputes between Great Britain and the United States, acknowledging the receipt of the memorial adopted at the meeting. In his letter Lord Salisbury says: "I am glad to be able to inform you that this question is receiving the consideration of Her Majesty's Government ment, and that proposals in the direction indicated by the memorial are now before the Government of the United States."

The memorial referred to contains the following: "Without expressing any opinion upon pending controversies, we would earnestly press the advisability of promptly concluding some treaty arrangement by which all disputes between Great Britain and the United States could be referred for adjudication to some permanent tribunal representing both nations and uniting them in the common interest of justice and peace."

In its issue to-day the Daily News, under the caption of "A Break in the Clouds," deals with Lord Salisbury's reply to Sir James Stansfeld, which it describes as the most hopeful word that has been had for a long time from the Prime Minister. The paper says that it hopes that no efforts to press the consideration by the Government of the memorial into action. The Daily News elsewhere traces the arbitration movement from the resolutions adopted by the American Congress in 1890 and the House of Commons in 1893, and from President Cleveland's message in the latter year. It proceeds: "When Lord Rosebery became Prime Minister he took the matter up with the unanimous approval of the Cabinet. He intimated to Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Ambassador to the United States, that should President Cleveland act upon the resolution of Congress, which requested him to invite negotiations with this Government with a view to establish a system of arbitration, the British Government would welcome such an invitation. Since then nothing has been done. We hope that Lord Salisbury's letter means that substantive proposals have been made."

The Chronicle to-day congratulates Lord Salisbury on the action he has taken to secure arbitration, and says it devoutly hopes that the United States will reciprocate Great Britain's offer of good will.

Honor Was Satisfied.

Rome, March 23.—The duel between Gen. Mocenni, ex-Minister of War, and Signor Barzilais, a Radical member of the Chamber of Deputies, growing out of a wrangle in the Chamber Saturday during the discussion of the credits asked for by the Government, took place yesterday morning. The weapons used were sabres. Gen. Mocenni proved himself the better swordsman and wounded his opponent in the face. Honor being thus satisfied, the duellists became reconciled.

19,000 Men.

Cairo, March 23.—Seven thousand Bedouins and three British battalions have been organized to join the Soudan expedition. This will make a total of 19,000 men forming the expedition.

A DANGEROUS PRECEDENT.

One would suppose that lawyers seldom make mistakes, especially when they have had months to prepare their speeches.

The great fault with some of the colored lawyers is, they blow hot and cold. Some of them imagine more than what really exists and often secretly condemn and denounce that which exists in their imagination.

The paper of Lawyer Fountain Payton that was read before the Lyceum of the Second Baptist on last Sabbath afternoon, to which a large and intelligent audience listened with pleasure and admiration, demonstrated two or three things.

It showed first, that the colored lawyers are either starving to death or that the colored people don't care to patronize them.

Secondly. That Lawyer Payton is without clients or he is jealous of those who have, and if he could he would confine the practice of law within the circle of lawyers named by him in his paper.

Thirdly. His condemnation of the colored people because they employ white lawyers is a dangerous precedent to establish, as no discrimination is ever made by white lawyers nor do they ever condemn or criticise white people because they employ colored attorneys and there are many of them who have white clients and we have never heard one word of disapproval by such high-toned and gentlemanly members of the bar as lawyers Selers, Campbell Carrington, Frank Closs, Col. W. A. Cook, Shillington, C. M. Smith, Lipscomb, Johnson and many others who come in close contact with the colored attorney. To the contrary many of these gentlemen have been associated with colored members of the bar in cases with white clients. Have not white attorneys the same priviiege to condemn their people for employing colored attorneys?

There has been a great deal of talk about discrimination and prejudice in the courts against the negro attorney and especially the opposition of certain judges to the colored attorneys.

It was very surprising to the editor of this paper, when he heard Lawyer Payton bestow so much praise upon the courts, when he but a few weeks ago took occasion to declare that there was prejudice against negro attorneys by the courts.

We shall not state all he said, unless occasion warrants it.

There is not a practicing attorney who has not declared that there is prejudice in the courts against negro attorneys.

How much of this is true we are unable to state.

Is there one negro member of the bar who will state that he has not declared at any time that there is no prejudice against him in certain District Courts?

The columns of this paper is open to any member of the bar to make any statement he feels disposed to make.

We don't propose to allow negro lawyers to blow hot and cold and then run to the judges and whisper hypocritical infectives in the ear of the judges, to enable them to incur the courts favor, to the detriment of others.

If negro lawyers want to succeed let them be more honest and be true to themselves. Let them attend to their own business and if all the colored people want to employ white lawyers let them do so.

A person has a right to get what he pays for and purchase what he wants without being dictated to, criticised or condemned.

It is a dangerous precedent for colored lawyers to draw the color line.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT.

Public sentiment has a great deal to do with the convictions of persons very often.

Many an innocent person is condemned by public sentiment and many a guilty person escapes conviction by public sentiment.

This wholesale crusade against the "division" and the whiskey traffic in this city is the emanation of a great number of christian hypocrites, religious and temperance cranks, who have nothing to do but to interfere with other people's business.

Some of our courts, to a great extent, have been controlled or influenced by public sentiment. No man appointed Judge of any court should be influenced by public sentiment if he is right. These houses of prostitution are bound to exist.

Whiskey will be sold and consumed no matter what the law is against it.

If it is lawful to allow whiskey to be distilled, it should be lawful to allow its sale, without oppression.

No matter how immoral the life of a prostitute is, there is no law that will stop her.

Such exists in every country and in most countries the Government license these houses.

If our local Government were as active in regulating the laws of the District and putting down crimes that are more damaging to the people than these houses of prostitution and whiskey, certainly we would have no cause to complain.

Oppressive taxation; a discrimination against one class of people for another; thievery, murder, etc., are more menacing to the destruction of good morals than all the whiskey that is sold and all the houses of prostitution that now exists.

The District of Columbia has the most inconsistant Government in the world.

DISTRICT SUFFRAGE.

A committee of representative citizens, composed of Lawyer Siddons, Master Workman Simmons, Dr. Reyburn, Dr. C. B. Purvis and several others made arguments before the District Committee on Tuesday in favor of suffrage in the District of Columbia. The Committee ably presented the claims of the people and it is the duty of Congress to submit the question to the people and see if the restoration of the elective franchise is not wanted.

We know that there are a few aristocratic gentlemen in this city who are members of the so-called Citizens Committee who are opposed to suffrage.

Must the masses of the people suffer because a few blouted bondholders are opposed to the rights of suffrage?

It is hoped that Congress will not delay but submit the question to the people at once.

A CLEAN PIECE OF WORK.

Messrs. Weeden, Horn and Helen who so cleverly captured the two notorious knock-out thieves are entitled to the praise of the entire community. It is one of the finest pieces of detective work that has been done in this city for a number of years.

The escape of these men from the New York detectives and their escape from some of the most notable detectives in this country and to be captured by the detectives in this city are evidences that we have some of the best men in the business and that Inspector Hollinberger very seldom fails to come out on top.

Reed is in the lead and will be nominated.

Hon. John R. Lynch will be admitted to the Republican Convention.

There should be a Colored President at the head of Howard University.

The latest fake is a plea for clients.

Dr. Rankin is no doubt convinced by now that he and a few of his trustees cannot turn a good colored teacher out of his position because they don't like him, and not be rebuked.

The House of Representatives has deprived the University of thirty-five thousand dollars. The well-paid professors, (white) will not suck the blood of the negro much longer.

All the Central American Republics Will Recognize the Insurgents if We Do.

City of Mexico, March 10.—As the United States Government has not yet formally recognized the belligerency of the Cubans, Mexico and the Central American republics are simply waiting definite action by Cleveland. Doubtless recognition by Cleveland would be speedily followed by similar action in Central America and Mexica. It must be borne in mind that resident Spaniards here have great influence. They control the National Bank of Mexico, and their importance in manufacturing and in agriculture is out of all proportion to their numbers. The great mass of Mexican people dislike them and sympathize with Cuba.

They're All Girls.

Berlin, March 6.—Countess Bismarck, wife of Count Herbert Bismarck, has given birth to a daughter. Prince Bismarck is keenly disappointed because the infant is not a boy. Countess Marguerite Bismarck was formerly Countess Hoyos. She was married to Count Herbert at Vienna in June, 1892, and in November, 1893, gave birth to a daughter, who was named Jeanne. Count William Bismarck, the Prince's second son, has three daughters. This accounts for the Prince's disappointment, for as yet there is no male of the third generation to inherit the Bismarck name and properties.

Sen. Hill's Motion Denied.

Washington, March 10.—In the Supreme Court yesterday the Chief Justice announced that the court had denied the motion of Senator Hill to reform the judgment in the case of the United States vs. the State of New York for interest on money advanced to the United States at the beginning of the late war without prejudice to the right of the State to go into the Court of Claims for a judgment upon its claim for interest.

Fasted Forty Days and Died.

Dansville, N. Y., March 7.—Mrs. Valentine Kurtz died yesterday at South Dansville as a result of her having fasted forty days. Mrs. Kurtz was 40 years old. She leaves a husband and three children. She was afflicted with stomach trouble and said that the Lord directed her to fast forty days and she would be cured of her disease.

Laidlaw Wins His Case.

New York, March 7.—The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court gave a decision yesterday affirming the order of the lower courts, which gave a decision in favor of Laidlaw and against Russell Sage, for $40,000 damages, and costs, amounting to $3,000. Mr. Sage will now undoubtedly carry his suit up to the Court of Appeals.

February Fire Losses.

New York, March 10.—The Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin to-day says that the fire loss of the United States and Canada during February shows a total of $9,730,100, as compared with $11,297,600 in February, 1894, and $12,360,200 in February, 1895.

It Was No Murder.

Chicago, March 10.—The bodies of the man and infant found in an alley Sunday night in a mutilated condition have been identified. There was no murder, as was supposed, but the bodies were dumped into the alley by a medical college to save the expense of burial.

Mrs. Eliza Warner, formerly Miss Eliza Upshaw, of this city, from a highly connected family, who left this city some several years ago when but a little girl, has returned on a visit and is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Butler.

Mrs. Warner was quite a favorite when she was a little girl and at all the public schools and school exhibitions, she always took the lead. She is now among those of her childhood; and on behalf of her numerous friends The BEE welcomes Mrs. Warner to the home of her nativity.

Mr. J. O. Holmes, is up again to the satisfaction of his friends.

Miss Blanche Conkling, of Baltimore, Md., was in the city last week, the guest of Miss Emma McGinnis. Miss Conkling is a very sweet young lady She dined with Miss Eva A. Chase Sunday evening.

NEW ADVERTISERS THIS WEEK.

THE BEE TAKES THE LEAD.

The BEE is steadily in the lead in advertisements. Among the new advertisements this week are some of the best known business men in this community, as follows:

Mr. John H. Gates, one of the most clever men in the Southeast. Mr. Gates is a friend to the Afro-American and a man of fine business qualities. Mr. Moore formerly kept this place, but he has retired from business. Mr. Moore is a young man of fine business tack.

Messrs. M. G. Jerman & Son are the proprietors of The Home Market, one the best stands in the Northwest. Everything fresh and everything in season.

Messrs. George H. Gray & Co., are no doubt the best known firm in Anacostia.

Mr. George Gray is a young man of many parts and is bound to succeed, because he knows how to treat his fellow man.

Don't fail to call on the old man as he has the best stand in Anacostia. The boys in the country are requested to ask for George Gray & Co., and the old man on the corner who have everything in the grocery line.

Do you want wood and coal? If so, don't fail to cut out the ad. of F. Thomas, 1901-'3 14th street, n. w. Mr. Thomas is a thorough going business man.

Mr. Thomas Heany is an artist in his line of business. He has a branch studio and workshop at Carrara, Italy. He is one of the best informed men in this country on marble and granite monuments.

See our amusement column and if The BEE doesn't bring to you the worth of your money it will be refunded.

Mr. James Tharp is the old reliable. He is a pleasant gentleman, and when you want to be refreshed call and see him.

Ferry & Son, New Jersey Avenue and E street, n. w. Mrs. Ferry is a very pleasant lady and the goods of this firm are first-class.

The genial Wm. L. Wells asks one favor and that is, will the Excise Board permit him to live.

The Committee on Speaker for the Emancipation Celebration has elected W. H. H. Heart, orator of the day; Robert Halliday, president of the day; Rev. Robert Johnson, Chaplain; E. V. Davis, Master of Ceremonies: L. G. Pletcher, jr., will read the acts of the Emancipation. Addresses will be made by Mr. P. H. Carson and Rev. G. W Lee.

The orator of the day for the celebration is a speaker and a sound logician as well as eloquent.

The BEE suggests to Mr. Heart to condemn street parades.

Miss Sarah Lewis has resumed her school duties with the assistance of Mrs. Helen Smith.

An elaborate program has been prepared by the Fifteenth Street Presbyterian Church for to-morrow.

BOGUS ADVERTISING SOLICITORS.

The merchants who advertise in this paper will be on the lookout for bogus advertising solicitors, who claim to represent the Railroad Porters Guide, when in fact the Porters on the road only recognize one journal and that is The BEE.

These men also claim to work in hotels, to the contrary they don't know what the inside of a hotel looks like. This so-called Guide is circulated only among the advertisers.

Mrs. M. B. Chichester, of No. 75 Fenton street, for several weeks under the treatment of Dr. Shadd, is improving slightly,

If negroes want to succeed in business they must be willing to advertise.

The great demand of the colored people of this city is a first-class cafe.

Among The BEE's recent subscribers is Miss Carrie Bell, one of Washington's bright social stars.

All the spring fabrics are out, and they are as light and airy and dainty as the most fastidious could claim.

Flowers are in demand on hats, mantels and neck garnitures.

Skirts and sleeves will retain their exaggerated width, in spite of the rumor that they are becoming narrower and smaller.

The luxury in trimming has never been so apparent, spangles, pearl, and get embroidery, silk and velvet appliques and even painted flowers or designs have been adopted lately on the expensive evening and reception costumes.

A great many bicycling gowns have leather trimming, which is most appropriate. Plaid costumes for the wheel are very practical, as they do not show the dust as much as plain goods.

For outing purposes, there is a new material called "Atlanta." It has a glossy surface is very strong and comes in all neutral shades.

Tailor-made costumes are not worn quite as much as heretofore, as they change their aspect entirely with stylish lingerie blouse fronts and short corsages finished with ribbon,

A handsome travelling dress is of gray mixed cheviotte. The skirt has a big box plait on each side. The corsage has a big box plait in the middle and on each side a drapery of goods, which form a triple collet on the shoulders.

Steel ornaments and diadems nor rhine-stones are worn as much on hats as heretofore.

All sorts of novelties are out for veils, but the only permissable ones are black net, coarse or fine, black, with white dot, white with black dots. Black chennile with the valencienne border is chic.

Glace kid takes the place of the undressed kid that has so long been fashionable,

A great many of the hats are made of crowns of spangled tulle, which gives an airier effect to the other wise heavy head-dress, the heaviness given by the masses of plumes and ribbons.

A black belt having long ends on the back is considered more harmonious with a blouse and skirt than would be one of leather or gilt.

Tiny gilt, steel, and pearl buttons set in rows rival the huge buttons, which in single numbers decorated the bodices of last season.

Persian designs are shown in batiste and make extremely dainty blouses.

The fashionable stem-green, which is within itself a thing of beauty is noted in silk bodices and is also used on fancy woolens when stocks and belts are of velvet or silk.

Makes
More Bread,
than any other flour. Makes 300 1 lb loaves to the barrel. That's about ONE FOURTH MORE than other brands make. That's why you should use Cream Blend Flour. Not the only reason however. The most important is that
Cream Blend Flour
NEVER FAILS to make the whitest, lightest, most delicious Bread, Rolls, Biscuits, Cake and Pastry. It goes into more homes than any other. All live dealers sell it Insist on having Cream Blend always.

A Pleasure to testify in favor of MEXICAN
MUSTANG LINIMENT.
Indispensable for the eradication of pains, bruises and especially neuralgia.

REV. F. M. JACOBS.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 19, 1895.
Lyon Manufacturing Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.
Dear Sirs:—I consider it a pleasure to testify to the good qualities of your Mexican Mustang Liniment. I have had occasions to use it for some years as a general family medicine. It has proven an indispensable thing for the eradication of pains, bruises, and especially for neuralgia, of which my wife was a constant sufferer. I have tried many liniments, but I may safely say that none has acted so soothingly and successfully as Mustang Liniment. I have no hesitancy in recommending it as an indispensable family medicine. Yours truly,
REV. F. M. JACOBS,

Don't allow your jealousy to cause you to do evil, for you will surely regret it.

The girl who earns good wages and makes but little use of the same, in course of time will come to want.

The person who thinks he knows it all will soon find out he knows but little.

Ella: You ought to have sense enough to know that a deploma is oft times given to an ignoramous just to keep him out of the presence of a teacher who knows he will forever be an idiot.

Bessie; Since your sister are the elder, I think she has a right to tell you of your wrong doing.

A thorough training in some one branch of work, is as important as something to eat.

Girls who have no special vocation in life are those seen, daily in search of employment.

"Hope" is a great uplifter, and it oft times clears the clouded skies of doubt and trouble, bnt alas it has no foundation.

It is not wise to luxuriously furnish your home for society sake, and at the same time cause the inner man to want.

Men like to see the touches of clever and skillful fingers, hence girls who would please should devote their spare moments to painting, embroidery, etc.

Corine: A cultured and refined girl will not be seen on the street corners among a crowd of girls, nor will she allow a young man to stop her on the corner.

Don't become disheartened or discouraged because you can't look better than everybody else, for it shows a weak mind.

A honest girl is willing to do anything to earn a living. If her trade should fail she will seek another.

A good natured, jolly awkard person can be easily tolerated than refined looking ill natured person.

Jane: Cheap things are the most expensive. Serge at fifty cents a yard will you a good dress.

Hattie: People often dislike you because others do. Live above suspicion and then you can confront the world.

Lu: Take my advice and never marry a man who depends alone on Government salary.

'Tis more honorable to be the wife of a man who is his own boss, than be the wife of a man who is bossed by some one else.

Mabel: A silly girl is oftimes taken in by a man because of his fine dress. Fine feathers do not always make fine birds neither does a fine dressed woman or man always make a lady or gentleman.

Nellie: Do not always judge by appearances because they are deceitful. An honest woman is known by her deportment.

M. M.: Too much interest in your welfare by your friends should be watched with suspicion. Such interest is not always honest.

J. J.: Certainly if your company is important enough to be accompanied from church, it should have been asked for before you left home.

The more independant girls act and the more they respect themselves the more they are respected by other people.

Girls should never allow themselves to be courted by "fine fancies and sweet circumstances;" they are like the smoke when it ascends in the clouds, (out of sight.)

Girls should always be true to themselves and cultivate the importance to be true to those who confide in them.

Zida: It was a gross error for a girl of your intelligence to make. You should have said, "I have a pain," and not "I have got a pain."

Carrie: Preachers do not always practice what they preach. Some preachers may object to dances and commit acts ten times worse. Dancing is a wholesome exercise, although much sin is made of it, like everything else.

J. T.: As we all know dressing is an art and one should dress in what is becoming and not what is fashionable. It is true the preacher wants his salary, for that reason he declared that women dressed too extravagant or gay. He can always be seen in the latest style diagonel. He should first set the example.

At the recent "Black Patti" Concert given at the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, Pa. Mrs. Jones received among other floral tributes a beautiful star standing three feet high the gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bergen, which was presented by Mr. Henri Strange, with the following remarks: Ladies and Gentlemen: Above all the beautiful selections we have heard tonight and properly appreciated there is one little incident that will appeal to you greater than all else, and that is a tribute of one great artist to another. I hold in my hand a floral star; the gift of Flora Batson; Queen of Song to Sissieretta Jones, the Black Patti. The applause that followed was deafening.

WANTED.—One hundred ticket sellers for the Batson Concert. Cash prizes of $5, $10, and $20, awarded to the three highest returning over $60, $40, and $20 before 7.45 night of the concert, Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, Thursday, April 23. J. W. Cromwell, Chairman of Committee.

The Phillips School gave its annual concert on Monday evening at the Mount Zion M. E. Church, West Washington. The rendition of the musical and literary selections called forth much praise and applause. Miss Gertrude Smith, the Principal, and her teachers deserve much credit for their excellent management.

The followiug musical talent will assist Miss Batson at her next concert here. Miss Sarah E. Saunders, our popular reader, the Junior Metropolitan Choir. Mr. Edward T. Harris, jr., baritone and the Howard University Mandolin Club, Mr. W. Braxton and J. A. Lively, accompanists.

If you wish to hear them free of charge sell tickets.

One of the greatest productions of the 19th centuary is Dr. E. M. Grandison, Cosmpolitan and Biblical Diarama at Ebenezer Church, Capitol Hill, Easter Monday night. Don't fail to go and see this great exhibition of past and coming events.

Mr. Grandison is a man of great ingunnity, and if you want to see great things go early. Advt.

There will be a grand Easter Entertainment, given under the auspices of the Emancipation and Historical Association of the District of Columbia, Easter Monday Evening, April, 6, 1896, at Green's Hall, Penn. Ave., between 17th and 18th streets, n. w.

☞ To assist in making this entertainment a financial success a GOLD RING will be given to each one selling $5 worth of tickets; $10 worth, a SILVER WATCH. The one that turns in the highest amount of money over $30, on tickets or cards, will receive a hand-GOLD WATCH.

PRIZES TO BE GIVEN AWAY.

The publishers of The Happy Home will give an elegant fine-toned Upright Piano, valued at $350.00, absolutely free to the person sending them the largest list of words constructed from the letters contained in the name of their well-known publication.

"THE HAPPY HOME."

Additional presents, consisting of bicycles, gold watches, silver watches, sewing machines, music boxes, silk dresses, china dinner sets and many valuable and useful articles, will also be awarded in order of merit, and every person sending not less than ten words will receive a present of value. Use either plural or singular words, but not both, and use no letter in the same word more times than it appears in the text, "THE HAPPY HOME."

This is a popular plan of introducing into new homes this popular publication, which has in its three years' existence received a happy welcome in many thousands of homes.

As the object in giving away these valuable presents is to advertise and attract attention to THE HAPPY HOME, which is a handsomely illustrated monthly publication devoted to Literature, Fashion, Stories and Art, every list of words must be accompanied with three two-cent stamps (six cents) for a trial copy of this favorite home journal containing full particulars, list of presents, and rules regarding contest. You may receive a valuable award for your trouble. Address THE HAPPY HOME, 360 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

When you want photographs made by an artist who would not send out a bad picture, go to Estabrook's on the ave.

GOOD ADVICE.

Every patriotic citizen should give his personal effort and influence to increase the circulation of his home paper which teaches the American policy of Protection. It is his duty to aid in this respect in every way possible. After the home paper is taken care of, why not subscribe for the AMERICAN ECONOMIST, published by the American Protective Tariff League? One of its correspondents says: "No true American can get along without it. I consider it the greatest and truest political teacher in the United States."

AL-BORAK.

It is so strange how certain people can set in one department with men and then kick on setting in others.

Some people will be cranks under all circumstances and until they die.

It looks strange that it should be expected for a house of three steps to settle a difference, occuring thirty steps above. Now a certain Mr. Smart Iaasis had better go slow.

THE NEGRO IN LAW.

A PLEA FOR CLIENTS.—LAWYERS WHO ARE SAFE FROM THE STANDPOINT OF OTHERS.—THE ARISTOCRACY CONDEMNED.

The Second Baptist Churrh, of which Rev. W. Bishop Johnson, D. D., is Pastor, was crowded to its utmost capacity on last Sabbath afternoon. The occasion was the meeting of the Lyceum which meets in the lecture room every Sabbath afternoon.

The exercises are interspersed with music by a fine orchestra connected with the Lyceum.

Sunday afternoon the exercises were more than interesting from the fact it was lawyers day. Mr. Fountain Payton, a member of the District bar was introduced and read a paper entitled, "The Negro in Law."

Mr. Payton is a good writer and while his paper called forth a great deal of discussion pro and con he demonstrated his ability as a writer.

He condemned in forcible language those Afro-Americans in high society who carried their business to white lawyers and denied the charge that colored lwyers were shysters.

He cited several instances where persons when learning to play on the piano, at first they are little awkward, after a while they become proficient. So it is with the colored lawyer. How do you, said Mr. Payton, expect colored lawyers to become proficient if you don't give them the practice?

We might as well say that all of our schools teachers are incompetent because they are colored.

The charges that a colored man has no influence with the courts and that the courts are prejudiced to the negro attorney are false.

There is no prejudice by the courts against the negro attorney.

We are told that we lose all of our cases. Not one colored man has been hung who has been defended by a colored attorney.

I am told said he, that Lawyer John A. Moss, was the first colored attorney to defend a white man for murder.

There are other cases where the colored attorneys have defended colored men for murder and the men have never been hung.

Does that look like we are shyster lawyers?

A colored lawyer was appointed by one of the Judges, Examiner, the first in the history of the court, which is your humble servant. The colored lawyer has been to the Court of Appeals said Lawyer Payton, but he failed to say whether he was successful or not.

The eloquence of Mr. Payton sored high, when he appealed to his auditors to place their cases in the hands of such men as Robert H. Terrell, Milton M. Holland, E. M. Hewlett, F. J. Bundy and Geo. A. Douglass and they would be safe.

He said, these old men who never found any fault in the race were too narrow minded to judge right from wrong.

The daily press of this city and these buzzard reporters who garble up Police Court News are opposed to the colored attorney. These carrions of the press publish their rot every week and when you see the name of the lawyer left out of a published report, you can depend upon it that he has won his case and when his name is published he has lost his case.

At the conclusion of his paper, which took one hour to deliver it, the President took up a collection, after which he announced that the paper was open for discussion.

Mr. W. Calvin Chase then took the floor and paid a high compliment to the writer and his paper, and said it was a fine euology of himself and a plea for clients; that lawyers Messrs. Ricks, Jones and Langston who had more clients than the combine had not been mentioned. I am very much suprised, said Mr. Chase to hear the writer praise the courts of this city when he, sometime ago declared that the Judge of the upper Police Court was inimical to him and every negro lawyer who practiced before him. Indeed, said Mr. Chase, it is more surprising to know that he finds no fault with the Judges of the upper courts when he declared that a Judge of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia was iminical, not only to him, but to negro attorneys.

With the prejudices of the courts, the treachery and deception of some negro attorneys against one another and with the combined apposition of both, the negro attorney has a hard road to travel. Indeed, said Mr. Chase, there is more treachery and deceit among certain negro attorneys than among any other class of citizens.

A man who comes here and tells you one thing and practices another is full of deception. He comes here and apologizes for the wrongs of the court against the negro, which he has said, heretofore existed, by telling you now, there is no prejudice against negro attorneys.

Time having been called on Mr. Chase, Mr. Wright, took the floor and painted out from his standpoint, certain inconsistences which the essayists paper contained.

Mr. Wright thought there was a difference between school teachers and lawyers.

That a lawyer must practice before he gets proficient, like a person who, as he said, is learning to play on the piano, is absurd.

Mr. Hershaw thought the paper an excellent one as did Mr. R. S. Smith.

Mr. J. M. Ricks informed the audience that Mr. Payton did not represent him; that he had no complaint to make against the colored people. He defended the rich, poor, the high and the low. He asserted that when he was in the department receiving $60 per month, he was always broke, but now he had money in three banks. He also said that he received higher fees from white clients than he did colored.

His address created much merriment.

Mr. Ricks gave his hearers to understand that the colored lawyers were paupers, but, from what Mr. Payton said they were all hard-up.

When Lawyer Hewlett was told about the paper, he said it was all wrong. It should never have been read. It leaves the colored people to infer that all the colored lawyers were paupers.
